Academic Year	2019-20
Name of the Activity	National Conference on role of social media in society transformation.
Date of the Activity	11/08/2019
Beneficiaries	Faculty Members
Venue	College Campus
Brief Report	National conference on "Role of social media in society transformation" is conducted by college. Discussion made during conference was social media has affected our society for better and for worse. Looking at these initiatives, it is clear that social media will build a distinction in people's lives. However, achieving this development or modification is not straightforward. There are matters that require to be addressed before we can even consider using social media as a tool for development for the mass. So far, we have seen each what is operating and what is not. Keeping in mind the negative aspects, there is a desire that we tend to specialize in however best these challenges might be handled.

Brief Report	A national seminar titled "Issues and Challenges in Higher Education" was convened by the college. The landscape of higher education is notably diverse, and the challenges faced by institutions in this sector are both critical and complex in the current context. Key issues such as access, equity, inclusion, research quality, privatization, and funding are intricately linked to higher education. Additionally, fundamental problems persist, including inadequate infrastructure, a shortage of faculty, low enrollment rates, outdated teaching methodologies, declining research standards, diminished student motivation, ethnic disparities, gender bias, and student dropout rates. Furthermore, significant challenges such as the need for continuous curriculum updates, globalization, the rapid proliferation of private institutions, and insufficient funding to support various innovative programs have a substantial impact on higher education. Consequently, this seminar aimed to explore viable solutions to the pressing issues and challenges confronting higher education in India.

In record time, students moved from physical spaces that provided them with much-needed social interactions, to being seated behind a screen for hours on end. In Lebanon, the shift to online platforms happened at a slower pace, and was mainly driven by the academic institutions that already had digital learning platforms in place, and the means to operate them. How effective is online learning? <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The effectiveness of online learning is still the subject of debate. Experts have been studying the retention of information by students and how remote learning has impacted the development and social skills of children. They conclude that online learning's effectiveness is dependent on the following three conditions:• Students having consistent access to the internet and computers

Brief Report	A two-day workshop on the "New Education Policy 2020" has been organized by the college, focusing on several key points of discussion. The implementation of prior educational policies has primarily concentrated on issues related to access and equity. The ongoing objectives of the National Policy on Education from 1986, which was revised in 1992 (NPE 1986/92), are effectively addressed in this new Policy. A significant advancement since the previous Policy of 1986/92 is the enactment of the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act 2009, which established a legal framework for achieving universal elementary education. This National Education Policy aims to create an education system that is deeply rooted in Indian values, contributing to the sustainable transformation of India, or Bharat, into an equitable and dynamic knowledge society. It seeks to provide high-quality education to all, thereby positioning India as a global knowledge superpower. The Policy emphasizes that the curriculum and teaching methods in our institutions should instill in students a profound respect for Fundamental Duties and Constitutional values, foster a connection with their country, and cultivate a conscious understanding of their roles and responsibilities in an evolving world.

Brief Report	One day seminar on "Quantitative Data Analysis" is conducted and following points were discussed. Quantitative data analysis involves the use of computational and statistical methods that focuses on the statistical, mathematical, or numerical analysis of datasets. Two data analysis techniques for quantitative data are regression analysis (which examines relationships between two variables) and hypothesis analysis (which tests whether a hypothesis is true).
Photograph	 The infographic is titled "Top 4 Data Analysis Techniques" and is divided into two main sections: Quantitative Data Analysis and Qualitative Data Analysis. In the center, there is an illustration of a laptop with a magnifying glass over it, symbolizing data analysis. Under Quantitative Data Analysis, there are two numbered points: 1. Regression Analysis: Examines relationships between two variables. 2. Hypothesis Analysis: Tests whether a hypothesis is true. Under Qualitative Data Analysis, there are two numbered points: 3. Content Analysis: Measures content changes over time and across media. 4. Discourse Analysis: Explores conversations in their social context.
